

The USTA/Ursula Beck Men's Pro Tennis Classic began in 1999 and has developed into one of the premier tournaments on the United States Tennis Association Professional Circuit. Each year, 160 Players from over 20 different countries participate in the ten-day event. Professional players from the Decatur Futures have gone on to compete at all of tennis' Grand Slam tournaments: Wimbledon, U.S. Open, French Open and the Australian Open. The event is held at the Fairview Park Tennis Complex – a 2008 USTA Outstanding Tennis Facility.

The Decatur Community Tennis Foundation organizes the tournament each year. Since the inception of the tournament, the following tennis related activities have taken place through the merits of hosting this fantastic event here in Decatur.

- Renovation of the Fairview Park Tennis Clubhouse
- New bleacher awning at Fairview Park Tennis Complex
- Grant money to sectional & national level juniors
- New bleacher and awning on court 2
- Grant money provided in 2002 to help form the Mt. Zion Boy's & Girls Tennis Teams
- Grant money provided in 2006 to provide tennis during P.E. classes at Holy Family Grade School
- Grant money provided in 2006 to the Eisenhower Girl's Tennis Team to purchase team uniforms
- Grant money provided in 2007 to purchase tennis equipment for 21 Decatur Public Schools
- Grant money provided in 2007 & 2008 to MacArthur High School Tennis Teams for uniforms
- New on court benches for the Fairview Park Tennis Facility in 2008
- Grant money provided in 2009 to the St. Teresa Boy's Tennis Team for uniforms
- Grant money provided in 2010 to the new Fletcher Park Mt. Zion tennis court project
- Initiated winter high school tennis program in 2010 and 2011
- United States Tennis Association memberships for over 220 youth players
- Resurfacing of the tennis courts and new nets for the Fairview Park Tennis Facility
- Support of Decatur Park District/Decatur Athletic Club partnership to manage the Fairview Park Tennis Complex

If you love tennis, please consider one of the sponsorship opportunities available. You or your company can be a part of one of the premier sporting events in Decatur and help keep tennis "the sport for a lifetime."

Ursula Beck

Ursula was a life-long supporter of tennis in the Decatur community. She was a city junior tennis champion, collegiate tennis coach at Millikin and a financial supporter of the Decatur Recreation Department youth tennis program. Ursula passed away in January 2004 of Alzheimer's disease. Her loving husband Darrell has continued to sponsor the tournament in her memory.
